He asked the Dean of Men to state in answer to any correspondence that he lived at 33-05 Murray Street, Flushing, N. Y., at time of registration, and his address did not change at any time. His reason was that at that period of his life he was moved back and forth between his uncle's home and his grandfather's residence at 144-37 Barclay Avenue, Flushing, N. Y., and he is not sure of the exact dates. A notation on the margin of his letter indicated this request was granted.

The following investigation was conducted by
SA DONALD W. KUNO:

Information concerning the Appointee at the San Francisco "Examiner", daily newspaper, was reviewed on June 26, 1961. Biographical data dated December 6, 1956, reflected that Appointee then resided at 4160 Coulombe Drive, Palo Alto, California. He was Regional Director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 690 Market Street, San Francisco. He was born October 27, 1917, at Flushing, New York. His parents were ARTHUR R. WILLIAMS and ALINDA LOWRY. He obtained an A.B. Degree at Lincoln University, Pennsylvania, and an LL.B. Degree from the School of Law, Fordham University. He [redacted] on May 27, 1944, and had two sons. [redacted] born [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted] born [redacted] (u)

In an article dated March 29, 1954, the Appointee was reported to have made a speech at the Oakland auditorium on March 28, 1954, in which he warned Negroes against organizations purporting to fight for Civil Rights which often purposely raise the cry of racial discrimination to create dissention. He said, "Do not be fooled by these organizations. They seek only to distort and subvert." He declared that a reporter from the "Daily People's World" (DPW), a West Coast Communist newspaper, had been thrown out of the rally because the Communist Party is one of these groups. (u)

The July 29, 1959, issue reflected that the Appointee had been appointed as head of the New Constitutional Rights Section in the California State Department of Justice to protect civil liberties. The article stated that WILLIAMS was a partner in a San Francisco law firm, and was a member of the New York and California Bar Associations. (u)

In an article dated April 1, 1961, it was disclosed that the Appointee had been appointed on March 31, 1961, by President KENNEDY to serve as a Special Assistant to Peace Corps Director, SARGENT SHRIVER. (u)

The material in the library at the San Francisco "Chronicle" was reviewed on June 26, 1961. It contained no additional information. (u)

The material on the Appointee at the San Francisco "News Call Bulletin" was reviewed on June 23, 1961. The biographical data as of September 25, 1950, reflected that at that time he resided in Berkeley and had been West Coast Regional Secretary-Counsel for the NAACP since 1945 after graduating as an honor student from Fordham School of Law where he was an Associate Editor of the "Fordham Law Review." He was a veteran of World War II and a former member of the National Planning Board of the American Veterans Committee. He became a member of the New York Bar in 1945 and practiced before the United States Supreme Court in January, 1949. (u)

The Appointee was contacted in connection with an official investigation of the FBI by SA JAMES DUNPHY in January, 1952. At that time the Appointee related instances of his anti-communist feeling and specifically mentioned the expulsion of a chapter of the NAACP in Arizona because it was controlled and dominated by Communists. He advised that his anti-communist sentiments were well-known to the Communist Party. The Communist Party (CP) has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States as being within the purview of Executive Order 10450. On October 17, 1952, he told SA DUNPHY that any evidence that came to his attention that an individual or even a Chapter of the NAACP was Communist Party controlled he did not hesitate in expelling the individual or even a whole chapter. It was his expressed desire to eliminate all CP members from the ranks of the NAACP. He advised that frequently the NAACP functions were attended only by reporters of the West Coast communist newspaper "The Daily People's World", which sent reporters to cover the function. As a result, Appointee's name frequently appeared in the "Daily People's World" with portions of his speech taken out of context. (u)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The "Daily People's World" February 20, 1953, carried an article stating six Northern California Negroes including the Appointee, were formally sworn to the California State Bar on February 11. (u)

The Ninth Report, "Un-American Activities in California 1957," a report on the Senate Fact-Finding Committee on un-American activities to the 1957 regular California Legislature, Sacramento, from pages 109 through 125 refer to the NAACP. (u)

"In order to warn NAACP members against the overtures of these subversive groups and publications, Mr. Franklin Williams, West Coast Regional Officer of the NAACP, issued the following circular: (u)

"Keep your eyes wide open.

"Don't get sucked in!

"These groups, organizations and publications are attempting to mislead the Negro community: California Labor School, Civil Rights Congress (CRC), (National) Negro Labor Council, The Militant (newspaper), People's World (newspaper), Political Affairs (magazine). (u)

"They say they are "working for your civil rights," but they work among us in the interest of the Communist Party or other subversive and un-American movements. (u)

"Check and double-check before you sign petitions, attend meetings, serve on "defense" committees, or join or contribute to questionable organizations. (u)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"Keep your eyes wide open." (u)

The report stated that this circular was widely read by members of the NAACP throughout the entire West Coast. (u)

The California Labor School, (CRC, National Negro Labor Council) have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States as within the purview of Executive Order 10450. (u)

"The Militant" is the official newspaper of the Socialist Worker's Party which has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States as within the purview of Executive Order 10450. (u)

"Political Affairs" was an official CP monthly theoretical magazine. (u)

The Appointee's testimony before this committee is recorded on pages 116 through 125. He discussed the problems of the NAACP experienced in California referring to cases heard, "with callous hypocrisy, the Communist apparatus milked every major case where a Negro had become embroiled with the law in some serious offense, draining the incident of every vestige of its propaganda value and then completely ignoring the individual involved." (u)

It was pointed out in his testimony that the NAACP policy precluded its sending any more news releases or photographs to the "People's World" and, therefore, it should be obvious to the "People's World" that any coverage of affairs, events, conferences, or meetings sponsored by the NAACP is considered undesirable by the NAACP. (u)

[redacted] NAACP, 690 Market Street, stated she had known the Appointee for 14 years. She stated there was no question in her mind but that he was loyal to the United States and that he is a man of great ability and tremendous energy. She stated he was capable in whatever line of endeavor he attempted, whether it was investigation of a problem on a broad scale or detailed organizational and administrative work. She said she had known him while he was working in a legal capacity for the NAACP in the East and was a neighbor of his when he lived in Berkeley in December, 1950. She had worked with him in the office from 1952 until he obtained a job as Assistant Attorney General in Charge of Fair Employment Practices for the State of California with offices in San Francisco. She has maintained contact with him and his family. She regards [redacted] and the two boys as well mannered, loyal and reputable. She went on to describe the Appointee as a man of initiative, energy and understanding. She recommended him highly for any position of trust with the U. S. Government. She added that he had been untiring in his efforts to oust Communists and all other subversive elements from the NAACP. The interview was on June 27, 1961. (u)

[redacted] on June 27, 1961, stated [redacted] law firm with the Appointee from August, 1957, until he took his position with the State of California in 1959. She described him as a man with a firm, strong personality, as being efficient, conscientious, profoundly intelligent, thorough in his work, and capable in office procedure. She described him as a detached thinker and stated he was above reproach as to character, associates, reputation, and loyalty to the United States. She described him as "inspirational" in laying groundwork for any new programs and recommended him highly for a responsible position with the U. S. Government. (u)

[redacted]
[redacted] stated that the Appointee was a "1,000 per cent American." He would not question his loyalty to the U. S. Government. [redacted] stated he had known the Appointee since 1957 as a business partner but did not know him in a social way. He stated that the Appointee had been active in the NAACP and that it was his opinion that the Appointee had been sent to the West Coast in order to clean up the subversive elements in the NAACP in that area. He stated that the Appointee was relatively inactive in the American Civil Liberties Union as most of his time was taken with the NAACP. He described the Appointee as intelligent, personable, energetic, extremely articulate, and loyal to the U. S. Government. He recommended the Appointee for a responsible job with the U. S. Government. The interview was on June 27, 1961. (u)

[redacted] stated he had known the Appointee well since he came to the San Francisco area in 1950. They had worked closely together in the NAACP and he has visited at his home on numerous occasions. [redacted] stated that the Appointee is aggressive, intelligent, imaginative, very alert, and mentally agile. He stated the only weakness that he could think of the Appointee has is that he has a tendency to "take authority and run away with it." [redacted] stated that this trait had been of considerable benefit to the NAACP because, as a minority group, it was often necessary for a leader to be extraordinarily firm in his stand, but [redacted] questioned whether in a position of "power", the Appointee might have a slight tendency to misuse that power in his desire to get things done. [redacted] recommended the Appointee highly for his responsible position with the Peace Corps. He vouched for the Appointee's loyalty to the United States and stated that he had been untiring in his successful effort to rout out Communists and other subversive elements from the NAACP. He was interviewed on June 27, 1961. (u)

[redacted], on June 27, 1961, stated that he had known the Appointee since he came to California and had worked closely with him in the NAACP. He described the Appointee as able, brilliant, a good citizen who expresses himself well, and recommended him very highly for a responsible position with the U. S. Government. He stated he knew the Appointee both socially and in business. He described [redacted] as a very personable lady and the two sons as well brought up boys. (u)

[redacted] State Attorney General's Office, State Office Building, Civic Center, on June 28, 1961, stated that he had worked with the Appointee for two years while the Appointee was in charge of the Fair Employment Practices Division of the State Attorney General's Office. He described the Appointee as a man of high caliber, well qualified and well suited to his present job as a top administrator in the new Peace Corps. He stated that he had learned of the Appointee's present position when the Appointee left his job as Assistant Attorney General. He stated the Appointee had a good knowledge of subversive individuals and organizations and could recognize them. [] said he knew of no one he would recommend more highly for such a job with the U. S. Government. (u)

Mr. STANLEY MOSK, Attorney General, State of California, State Office Building, San Francisco, stated on June 28, 1961, that he had known the Appointee since 1957 and in October 1959 he had appointed FRANKLIN WILLIAMS to the position of Assistant Attorney General in Charge of the Fair Employment Practices Division as a man he felt best qualified for the position and Mr. WILLIAMS had not failed him in any job which he had. Mr. WILLIAMS was equally interested in furthering the interest of all minority groups and Mr. MOSK stated he was very sorry to lose the Appointee but did not want to stand in his way. He described the Appointee as brilliant, articulate, knowledgeable, and conscientious. He would not question the Appointee's loyalty to the United States. He said Appointee had terminated his position as Assistant Attorney General in April 1961 in order to accept his present position with the Peace Corps. (u)

Confidential Informants who have some knowledge of subversive activities, including Communist activities, in Northern California were contacted and have no information indicating membership or sympathy in any subversive organization by Appointee. (u)

b7D

SF T-1, [] advised on February 24, 1959, that Communist Party members in the San Francisco area have always felt that there was nothing that could be done with the NAACP mainly because FRANKLIN WILLIAMS was Regional Director. The Communists, according to SF T-1, consider FRANKLIN WILLIAMS as "quite a reactionary person." (u)

At Oxford, Pa.

Lincoln University

On June 29, 1961, [redacted] office of the Registrar, made available the file of FRANKLIN HALL WILLIAMS which contained the following information:

b6

He was born October 22, 1917, at Flushing, N. Y., and resided at 144-37 Barclay Avenue, Flushing, N. Y. Parents are ARTHUR LEE and ALINDA THERESA WILLIAMS. Father was born in New York City and employed as musician. He entered Lincoln University in September 1937 and on June 4, 1941, received an A.B. degree. His major was Philosophy, and his minor was French and Sociology. He was graduated cum laude and ranked third in a class of 68.

In his file is a letter to the Dean of Men dated October 24, 1945, stating he forgot the address he listed on his original application, but believed it to be 33-05 Murray Street, Flushing, N. Y. He said he had been living at 144-37 Barclay Avenue, Flushing, N. Y., prior to admittance. He asked the University to state in answer to any inquiry that he lived at 33-05 Murray Street when he registered, and his address had never changed. His reason for this request was that at that period of his life he was "shuttled" back and forth between his uncle's home and his grandfather's home at 144-37 Barclay Avenue, and he was not sure of the dates.

Previous employments are listed as June 1930 to September 1930, messenger, FRANK C. OSMERS, 75 West 47th Street, New York City; June to September 1934, counsellor, New York Urban League; February 1936 to date of application (March 16, 1937) chauffeur, GEORGE PHONG, 543 West 59th Street, New York City.

DETAILS:AT EL PASO, TEXASMISCELLANEOUS

On July 10, 1961, [REDACTED] El Paso Times, made available the microfilm maintained by his department regarding the El Paso Times publication for May 28, 1943. A review of this publication revealed the following letter on Page 17 under the caption "Speaking the Public Mind:"

"Editor, El Paso Times

"Since my first day of hospitalization here in El Paso, I have been a regular and satisfied reader of your paper. However, now we have come to the parting of the ways, as I find myself in sharp disagreement with your editorial policy in re the "Poll Tax Bill" - a fundamental disagreement which strikes to the very roots of my belief in the cause for which I am fighting.

"We are a nation at war! A nation fighting to preserve for ourselves and to extend to others certain basic principles of government fundamental to a working democracy. Since this is our professed purpose, let us set the example. You condemn those members of Congress who insist on the passage of an 'Anti-Poll Tax Bill' now - and in the same breath say that the South 'is coming out of its swaddling clothes.' If this be true, if the South is truly 'growing-up' at last, then let them demonstrate this by granting freedom of the polls - at least in federal elections - to the citizens of their respective states regardless of their ability or inability to pay a tax.

"We all know that the 'raison d'etre' of the poll tax laws. We all know - though some won't admit - that they were originally established for the express purpose of disfranchising a large portion of the Southern people because of their race or economic status. Is this just? Is this a democratic act? Is this one of the principles for which million of us are fighting and thousands dying? Is this one of the practices we are holding out to the peoples of the various conquered nations? I say 'It is not!' - It is rather, one the things we are frankly ashamed of.

"The people of El Paso have expressed themselves publicly quite vociferously concerning many national and local problems threatening our total war effort. Let them now make themselves heard in Washington concerning this cancer on democracy's back of which all true Americans are ashamed.

"Why should a bill to grant a just privilege to American citizens cause disunity? The individuals to be condemned are not the backers of the bill, but rather those men in Congress who will, with no compunction whatever, filibuster for days on end in order to prevent American citizens from enjoying the full fruits of this blessing. Such men are as traitors in acting thusly as 5th columnists, strikers, and draft-dodgers; nay they are worse, as they defile the sacred halls of Congress with their flaunted bigotry and prejudice.

On July 11, 1961, [redacted]
[redacted] for the El Paso Herald-Post, made available the microfilm maintained by her department regarding the El Paso Herald-Post publication for August 24, 1943. A review of this publication revealed the following letter on Page 4 under the caption "Thinking Out Loud" and under the subheading "Why Negro Press Does As It Does" by Private FRANKLIN WILLIAMS:

"Some weeks ago you paper editorially supported Westbrook Peggler in his condemnation of the Negro press. Having read some of those papers at various times, I disagree with your allegations concerning them. I have since your statements, familiarized myself with the history, personnel and general policies of the Negro press from the time of its first publication in 1827 to the present.

"My general impressions have been as follows: Negro newspapers stress mistreatment of colored people, because mistreatment is a fact, and the white press ignores it or plays it down. They bend over backward in giving credit to white people even when they make only a gesture of being fair.- as observe the play given by them to Mrs. Roosevelt, Pearl Buck, and Wendell Willkie. But when Negroes are beaten and killed, exploited and robbed, insulted and humiliated because they were fortunate or unfortunate enough to be born Negroes; their press would be worthless if it remained silent.

"Newspapers are supposed to report the news, stressing that which is of the greatest importance to the greatest number. This rule compels Negro newspapers to prominently report cases of discrimination, segregation and humiliation, because of color and they'd have no raison d'etre if they didn't.

A8 Monday, July 22, 1963 THE WASHINGTON POST

Peace Corps' Africa Director Sees Negro Ties Developing

By William J. Raspberry
 Staff Reporter

Franklin H. Williams, new Peace Corps director for Africa, believes American Negroes and Africans are developing a sense of oneness that has eluded them since the days of American slavery.

The rising tide of African nationalism, he feels, is giving the Negro a real sense of pride in his African heritage, while Africans, enthralled by the intensified civil rights struggle here, are starting more and more to identify with American Negroes.

Williams, former head of the Peace Corps' Division of University, Private and International Cooperation, assumed his new post last week, shortly after returning from an African tour with R. Sargent Shriver, Peace Corps director.

He was an Assistant Attorney General in California and had worked for 16 years as an NAACP counsel when he accepted Shriver's invitation to join the Peace Corps staff two years ago. In his new assignment, he will be responsible for the development, supervision and administration of all Peace Corps programs in Africa.

His interest in African affairs dates back to his student days at Lincoln (Pa.) University where he and Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana were fellow officers on the school's philosophy club.

Williams, a Negro, came to Washington in 1960 to apply for a position on the legal staff of the State Department's African Division. While here, he met Shriver and was persuaded to quit the California Attorney General's office to join the Corps as special assistant for United Nations and international agency programs.

A former secretary-counsel for the NAACP, he frequently gives lectures on civil rights to Peace Corps trainees. "Fortunately or unfortunately, there's not much we can tell them to say about segregation and discrimination here," he said. "We do insist that they learn the hard facts of our racial problems but we don't encourage them to proselytize—in fact, we forbid it. The Peace Corps is not an instrument of the Cold War."

Corpsmen can do a lot to sell democracy just by their work and their attitudes, he said. "We don't insist that they subscribe to an official party line, and in that, we're doing something the Communists can't afford to do," he added.

Williams, who has pleaded civil rights cases before the U. S. Supreme Court, said he is confident that this session of Congress will pass a "substantial" civil rights bill. He added that a law that does not ban discrimination in public accommodations could not be considered "substantial."

He believes the mass civil rights demonstration planned here for later this month will help to secure passage of President Kennedy's bill. Without the background of previous demonstrations, he feels, such a bill would stand no chance of passage, even with all-out Administration backing.

Williams, a native of New York, is married and the father of two teen-age sons. The family lives at 1601 Kalmia rd. nw.

Former N.A.A.C.P. Chief Says 'Movement Is Dead'

SAN FRANCISCO (Reuters)—Franklin H. Williams, a prominent Negro leader and former United States Ambassador to Ghana, said that "the civil rights movement is dead" and black power has taken its place in America.

Mr. Williams, director of the Columbia University Center for Urban Affairs, asserted that the civil rights movement had failed to meet the demands of American Negroes, especially in the big cities.

He said that the once-dominant movement brought progress for black people. "But measuring where we are, and where we ought to be, we've hardly moved," he said.

Mr. Williams, a former top official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said: "The 10 to 11 per cent [Negro] minority is now insisting on real participation in the richness of America, and with it a measure of self-determination."

The Deputy Attorney General
RE: FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

General of the State of California, Special Assistant to the Director of the Peace Corps, and United States Ambassador to Ghana.

The Phelps-Stokes Fund reportedly was established in 1911 for the improvement of tenement housing in New York City and for the education of disadvantaged persons. In 1952 a witness, in testimony before a committee of the House of Representatives, stated that for a time prior to the divorce of Mrs. Rose Stokes, an alleged "Charter member of the party," communists obtained money from the Fund through Mrs. Stokes.

This Bureau strongly opposes making available documents from any of its investigations, particularly in the indiscriminate manner suggested by the far-ranging request submitted by Mr. Williams. To accede to such a request would set a dangerous precedent ultimately leading to a wholesale public rummage through FBI files. It would appear that the information requested by Williams is exempt from the provisions of the Act because it represents investigatory files compiled for law enforcement purposes. Accordingly, it is recommended that Williams' request be denied.
